This book tells the story of how John Egan gradually overcame the odds and, piece by piece, rebuilt this great company, winning over the workforce, the overseas dealers and, most important of all, the customers. Working with Margaret Thatcher and her Government, Egan and his team of managers overcame every obstacle, every set-back, every challenge. Again and again, it looked impossible. Yet using innovative techniques, intelligence, eloquence, openness, motor racing and much more, they saved this most charismatic company which has created some of the finest and most loved motor cars of all time. It is an amazing story that will appeal equally to car enthusiasts, those in business and readers interested in social history.

Reviews of more than 190 automobiles, four-wheel drive vehicles, and compact vans are accompanied by specification data, the latest prices, and recommendations, as well as lists of warranties, and tips on financing and insurance.

This pictorial history shows the Jaguar company's humble beginnings when it built motorcycle sidecars, to the mass production of luxury saloons and high-performance sportscars. This account chronicles the decades of the 50s and 60s when Jaguar produced the XK120, XK150, the D-type, the E-type, the mark 2 and the XJ6. Each model is described in chronological order, and its contribution to the story of the development of Jaguar design and engineering is made clear. This title is intended for Jaguar owners and enthusiasts everywhere and should appeal to all those who have a keen interest in motoring history.
