IMPORTANT: watercolor and marker pages have black-backed pages to minimize bleed-through. The paper in this book (depending on where it was printed) is fairly tough, but obviously thinner than watercolor paper. Colors can look splotchy until completely dry. We recommend using a sheet of card stock or plastic to help protect the pages underneath from colors bleeding through as well as potential rub-through of pencil pigments while swatching. You can make PERSONAL COPIES of the charts you plan to use onto your favorite paper or card stock if the paper in this book feels too thin for your needs, or, if you just want to put those pages of the charts you are using into a ring binder for safe keeping. You can also deconstruct this book for ease of use, so feel free to take it apart, keep the pages you are using in one binder, and store the rest in case you need them later. Many office supply stores (and FedEx service centers) will remove the spine and even spiral-bind or punch holes in the book for you for a small fee. If you choose to do it yourself, I have a step-by-step tutorial using another book (Creative Companion Book Binding DIY) on my blog at rubycharmcolors.com. Or keep it as is--the choice is yours! It is meant to be a book that grows along with you and your artistic needs! Happy color swatching!

As a colorist and designer, finding new color combos can be daunting, instead of using the ordinary color wheel, I found that the shape and design of mandala helped me by making it easier and fun to test my art supplies and inspiring me to create some exceptional personalized themes and color combinations! Sometimes a few pencils look great next to each other, but the combination doesn't work too well on paper. And sometimes you might think the pencils do not combine very well, but you use them together in a mandala pattern and you find out they work together like a charm! You can mention each theme you created with its page number in the customizable table content, which will keep you more organized and makes it easy to find when you need it. TIP: Even the paper of this book is a premium quality, and thick enough, it's better to place a piece of cardboard paper under the page while coloring to prevent any eventual unwanted bleed through and indents.: Mandala Color Combinations Themes: ? Swatch out your markers, colored pencils and gel pens with these mandalas then write down color names in the blank boxes. You can use this space to write down color numbers and brands as well, so you'll always know exactly which pencil you used. ?
