Men look through online dating sites and are willing to meet up with pretty much any of the women who look good enough for sex or a relationship. As for women, they look for completely different things in a man when they meet him in PERSON, but if they are looking ONLINE, they select men based on looks and financial status. This happens because the woman has 100s and often 1,000s of men to choose from.

A research-based guide to navigating the newest dating phenomenon--"the love gap"--and a trailblazing action plan to help smart, confident, career-driven women find (and keep) their match. For a rising generation young women, the sky is the limit. Women can be anything and have everything. They are outpacing their male peers in higher education and earning the corner office at work. Smart, driven, assertive women are succeeding at just about everything they do--except romance. Why are so many men afraid to date smart women? Modern men claim to want smarts, success, and independence in romantic partners. Or so says the data collected by scientists and dating websites. If that's the case, why are so many independent, successful women winning in life, but losing in love? Journalist Jenna Birch has finally named the perplexing reason: "the love gap"--or that confusing rift between who men say they want to date and who they actually commit to. Backed by extensive data, research, in-depth interviews

The Art of Modern Dating – Discover how you can date the woman of your dreams and make her obsessed with you! Being able to pick up women and have short-term relationships is one thing. Knowing how to master the dating game and have a healthy long-term relationship is something entirely different. That's the truth I had to learn the hard way. After having the time of my life during my younger years, I thought I met the woman of my dreams. She was beautiful, funny and we just clicked. The problem was that I had no idea how to be in a serious relationship and after a couple of months...she dumped me. Looking back now, I don't blame her. There were a lot of things I did wrong. Things that I never would have thought of in a million years. However, back then I decided to get on top of things and learn how to master the dating game. That's how this book came to be. Every essential, every tip, and every secret you need to know in order to make the woman you date brag about you to all her friends. Inside this book you will discover: - Where you need to start in order to become a dating master (hint...it's you). - The things you NEED to avoid in order to keep any relationship happy and exciting. - A specially designed book structure containing clear lists, step by step guidelines and scenarios which you can easily remember and apply in your own life. - How dating has changed in the 21st century and what you need to do to stay relevant. - What you need to learn from the traditional dating style and what you need to forget right now! - Online dating – the good and the bad. How to actually be in a relationship and how to react in certain tricky situations. - How to avoid boredom and keep a relationship exciting and alive. - How to properly communicate in a relationship and avoid catastrophes which could separate you from the woman of your dreams. Dating has changed a lot over the years. Social media has added a lot of variables into the game and made everything a lot more confusing. Not knowing the essentials can be detrimental to any relationship. That's why you need to be prepared. It doesn't matter if you had a lot of failed relationships or you never been in one before. This book has you covered. Why? Because I failed a bunch of times and learned from my mistakes so you won't have to. The #1 New York Times Bestseller "An engaging look at the often head-scratching, frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives." –Refinery 29 A hilarious, thoughtful, and in-depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari, the star of Master of None and one of this generation's sharpest comedic voices At some point, every one of us embarks on a journey to find love. We meet people, date, get into and out of relationships, all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection. This seems standard now, but it's wildly different from what people did even just decades ago. Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history. With technology, our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering. So why are so many people frustrated? Some of our problems are unique to our time. "Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza?" "Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods? Combos?!" "My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan. Who's Nathan? Did he just send her a photo of his penis? Should I check just to be sure?" But the transformation of our romantic lives can't be explained by technology alone. In a short period of time, the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically. A few decades ago, people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood. Their families would meet and, after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer, they would get married and soon have a kid, all by the time they were twenty-four. Today, people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person, a soul mate. For years, Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance, but for Modern Romance, the book, he decided he needed to take things to another level. He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project, including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita. They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit, which drew thousands of messages. They enlisted the world's leading social scientists, including Andrew Cherlin, Eli Finkel, Helen Fisher, Sheena Iyengar, Barry Schwartz, Sherry Turkle, and Robb Willer. The result is unlike any social science or humor book we've seen before. In Modern Romance, Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting-edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world.

Kill Mr. Right Today and Find Your "Happily Ever After" Prince Charming and Mr. Right need to die right now. The same applies to your type. You're not 15, and you really don't need a list of superficial criteria to judge potential partners by. As a grown woman, you should be taking dating to the next level. Unfortunately, women are socialized to act a certain way when dating and seeking a romantic match. We have to be soft, we have to be feminine. In fact, most guides and magazines teach you to be passive, to turn yourself into a Damsel in Distress and wait for a fabulous guy to rescue you. It's time to get in charge of your dating life. You should know what you want, you should know how to assert yourself and how to make the most of the dating game. Most women experience insecurities and these can have a profound impact on romantic encounters. The media, magazines, and even influencers work full-time to instill such insecurities and commercialize just about every aspect of a woman's life. This is one of the reasons why 82% of married women question the love of their partner! That's a massive number showing an insecurity pandemic... a pandemic that needs to end right now. Dating should be fun, thrilling, and joyous. You should be excited about the chance to meet someone new, instead of dreading all the ways you could screw things up. How can you build that confidence to have a ton of fun on dates and be your unapologetic self? The secret to successful dating will surprise you, because it's that simple! In Dating for Women, you will discover: Why you've gotten dating wrong until now The #1 reason to forget about your type and shred the list of criteria you have for a potential partner 9 dumb dating mistakes even the biggest vixens make The secret rules of online dating finally uncovered - the one way
