Judy gets a taste of her own medicine in a hilarious new episode sure to tickle your humerus (aka funny bone) and put you in a very Judy Moody mood! She took her own temperature. With the fancy thermometer that beeped. It was not normal. It was not 98.6. Judy's temperature was 188.8! Judy's temperature was 00.0! Judy's temperature was beep-beep-beep-beep-beep. She, Judy Moody, had the temperature of an outer-space alien! Judy Moody has a mood for every occasion, and now, she, Judy Moody, is in a medical mood! It's no secret that Judy wants to be like Elizabeth Blackwell, first woman doctor, when she grows up. So when Class 3T starts to study the Amazing Human Body, Judy can hardly wait to begin her better-than-best-ever third-grade projects: show-and-tell with something way rarer than a scab, a real-live ooey-goey operation, and a cloning experiment that may create double trouble for Judy and her friends. RARE!

When a third grade classmate gets her picture in the paper for winning a spelling bee, Judy's determined to find a way to become famous herself.

When Judy Moody gets serious about protecting the environment, her little brother Stink thinks she's overdoing it, but she manages to inspire her third grade class to undertake an award-winning, environment-saving project.

After Judy obtains a mood ring, she tries to convince herself and her third-grade classmates that she can predict the future.
