The book deals with European law aspects of two European Court of Justice cases concerning cross-border tax relief claims and the decisions which have been criticized for lack of clarity and for breach of the freedom of establishment (Article 49 TFEU). The papers collected in the book cover the following issues: the underlying tax obstacles which exist for companies operating in more than one Member State; potential for tax avoidance; prevention of double use of losses (the 'no possibilities' test); disadvantages that arise as a consequence of the parallel exercise of fiscal sovereignty; the concept of 'balanced allocation of taxing powers'; meaning of 'final losses'; the 'Bosal fix'; cash-flow disadvantages of having to carry losses forward; deduction of currency losses; deduction-and-recapture rules; and VAT grouping.
