There are prayers that can help rekindle the interest of your spouse in your marriage, even if he or she hasn't looked at you in years. In some cases, these prayers can help turn any troubled relationship to a terrific relationship in as short a time as 21 days.

A rainmaker is someone who brings timely solutions to spiritual problems. He or she does this through "targeted" prayers. In the Bible, people like Hannah, Elijah and even our Lord Jesus were rainmakers. Today, 21st century rainmakers are busy using the principles of scripture to pray for healing, deliverance and prosperity, and bringing joy to the lives thousands all over the world. This book reveals their secrets and shows you how you can manifest your daily divine blessings through prayer.

This comprehensive Bible survey of all the important aspects of prayer is a part of the 'All Series' by renowned Bible expositor Herbert Lockyer.

Keeping a faithful prayer life with your family isn't easy. From herding distracted children to managing the seemingly endless litany of prayers and devotions, our spiritual life all too often feels frantic and burdensome. This isn't the way it should be. Our prayer life, our family life, and our work life should — and can! — be in harmony. When they are, our family is a powerhouse of grace, and Our Lord transforms our home into a little Eden — a little bit of heaven on earth. With simplicity and holy wisdom, authors David Clayton and Leila Marie Lawler show you how to bring peace to your home by integrating your family into the calm, truly joyful way of Mother Church. Her feasts and seasons, prayers and devotions are gifts that draw us closer to God and unfold before us His marvelous plan of salvation. To help you live the liturgical life of the Church more fully, David and Leila reclaim here an almost lost tradition that families used for centuries to build a beautiful bridge between home and church: the little oratory. Consisting of a modest table and icons, the little oratory is a visible sign of spiritual awareness and devotion. It extends the Eucharistic worship of the Mass into the heart of your home, spiritually nourishing your family and preparing them to transform the world through prayer and charity. Building your own little oratory is simple, and in these pages you'll discover just how easy it is. In fact, you likely have most of the pieces in your home already except, perhaps, the sacred art. That's why we've included here seven full-colored icons that are ready for framing, enabling you to get started right away! By following the wise advice in this book, you'll discover the peace and love that flows from a home that is focused on Christ. You'll also learn . . . How to use sacred art to strengthen your prayer life. How to extend Catholic beliefs and devotions into every room of the house. Why the Liturgy of the Hours is important and how it can make your family holy. How to pray the Rosary with children and keep the rowdiest of them calm and reverent. The active role children can and should play in the prayer life of the family. What to do when only one parent takes the spiritual life seriously. How to overcome the feeling that you're too busy to pray. Practical ways to extend the liturgical life into your workplace. And countless other tips to help you practice your faith in the heart of your home. Scott Hahn “ This is one of the most beautiful books I've ever seen. How I wish I'd had it when I first became a Catholic, not just for myself, as a husband and father, but for my family, too. If one book has the potential to transform the Catholic family (and society), this is it. ” Thomas Howard “ This book is a rare treasure. ” Christopher West “ A superb guide to making that encounter of thirsts a lived experience in the home. ” Daria Sockey, author of The Everyday Catholic's Guide to the Liturgy of the Hours “ The Little Oratory will help you discover a pattern of daily prayer that truly fits your family life while creating a place of beauty in the heart of your home.” Andreas Widmer, author of The Pope and the CEO “ An indispensable resource for anyone seeking to make their home a breeding ground for holiness. ” Elizabeth Foss, Founder, In the Heart of My Home “ Leila Lawler and David Clayton offer wisdom and grace to Catholics seeking to make their homes a holy shelter. ” Joseph Pearce, Editor of The St. Austin Review “ Wonderful, inspiring, and deeply practical. ” Stratford Caldecott, an Editor of Magnificat UK “ A great blessing to Catholic families. ” Father Robert Reed, President, CatholicTV Network “ A perfect guide for any family who strives to make their home a place to experience the majesty and beauty of the Divine. ”

If you're like most people, you can't afford to charter a yacht to the Bahamas on a moment's notice, nor can you take a week off work to attend a soul-cleansing spiritual retreat. So how is the busy, everyday, hard-working person supposed to find joy and passion in life? This is exactly the problem that Neil A. Panosian has spent most of his life trying to solve. A bartender and postal worker, the author felt uncomfortable with the rampant negativity in the world today and wanted to turn this discontent into something constructive—something the average person could use to increase their overall happiness, in just a few simple steps. So he started a blog dedicated to his pursuit of positivity, and quickly gained thousands of followers who were also looking for good ideas for improving their lives. Soon, he found that certain small actions were adding up to big rewards, and the rest is history. This fun-to-read book contains the best of the best—tools that can be used quickly and universally to increase joy, whether you're a busy professional, a blue-collar worker, or a single parent doing the best you can with little money or time.

In The Devotional for Busy People, Gbenga Asedeko shares simple and powerful truth filled with the promises from God's word that will help you to jumpstart your day in less than a minute. We live in a world where many of us are busy doing so many things and investing little or no time in our spiritual lives. Now we have no more excuses. In less than a minute you will connect to the source of life, peace, joy, health, wisdom, protection, freedom, victory, prosperity, breakthrough, righteousness and everything that pertains to life and godliness. The Devotional for Busy People will: Fire you up - It will help you to jump-start your day. Focus - It will help you to focus on what is important. Inspire - It will inspire you to make the most of your day. When you read the devotion for each day with intentionality and pray the prayer for each day with great expectation, before you know it you will begin to see your life and relationships transform, overcome addictions, prosper and live deeply in love with God.

Come with your brokenness, your celebration, and your worries, but most of all come and eat. In today ' s busy and often superficial world, we all crave something deeper and truer. Maybe it ' s relationships that go beyond the surface or gatherings that allow for joy and pain. Bri McKoy tells us this is within reach! All we need is a table, open hearts, and a simple invitation: come and eat. McKoy invites us to discover how a common dining-room table can be transformed into a place where brokenness falls away to reveal peace and fellowship. Whether the table is laid with bounty or with meager offerings, whether it is surrounded by the Body of Christ or homeless, broken souls, she shows us that healing begins when we say, “ Come in. I may not know you, but I know your maker. And so I offer you my heart. ” For all those who are hungry and craving more of God ' s kingdom in their homes, Come and Eat offers recipes, tips, and questions to jumpstart conversation, while reminding us that fellowship in God ' s love is always the most remembered, most cherished nourishment. Because when we make room for others, we make room for God, and our homes become a vibrant source of life, just as he means them to be.
