This collection serves as a showcase for literary translation research with a focus on African perspectives, highlighting theoretical and methodological developments in the discipline while shedding further light on the literary landscape in Africa. The book offers a framework for understanding key approaches and topics in literary translation situated in the African context, covering foundational concepts as well as new directions within the field. The first half of the volume focuses on the translation product, exploring such topics as translation strategies, literary genres, and self-translation, while the second half examines process and reception, allowing for an in-depth look at agency, habitus, and ethics. Each chapter is structured to allow for the introduction of a given theoretical aspect of literary translation followed by a summary of a completed research project with an African focus showing theory in practice, offering a model for readers to build their own literary translation research projects while also underscoring the range of perspectives and unique challenges to literary translation work in Africa. This unique volume is a key resource for students and scholars in translation studies, giving visibility to African perspectives on literary translation while pointing the way forward for future research directions.

This substantially revised and updated edition provides the most thorough evangelical treatment available on a theology of creation care.

Systematic Theology is the capstone of Robert Jenson's long and distinguished career as a theologian, being a full-scale systematic/dogmatic theology in the classic format. This is the second and concluding volume of the work. Here, Jenson considers the works of God, examining such topics as the nature and role of the Church, and God's works of creation.

A guide to the science of prophecy, why so many predictions never come to pass, and the Golden Age ahead

- Presents a mathematical means of divining the future, revealed in the Oahspe Bible, using the Egyptian Tables of Destiny, a 12,000-year-old system so exact it can foretell every day of the year
- Reveals that we are not headed for Rapture and the Apocalypse but for “ the Quickening, ” the embryonic stage of a Utopian Age
- Examines the cycles of history and explains why many prophecies have not come true

Reviewing the cycles of history from biblical times to the present and prophecies of the future from Nostradamus to Edgar Cayce and Jeane Dixon, Susan B. Martinez reveals that our current “ time of troubles ” is not the beginning of Rapture, the Apocalypse, or Armageddon, but of the embryonic stage of a Utopian Age--the “ Quickening ” of the human race. Reviving the lost science of prophecy, Martinez explains why so many “ great prophecies ” have failed and presents the 12,000-year-old Egyptian system of prediction so exact it can foretell every day of the year, a method based not on the planets, astrology, or intuition but on Earth ’ s magnetic rhythms. Using Earth science, historical research, religious texts, spiritualism, and patterns within the cycles of war and political milestones, she demonstrates that the past is the hidden key to the future and uncovers the prophetic numbers of Earth ’ s cycles--11, 33, 99, and 363--as set forth in the Egyptian Tables of Destiny, ancient texts brought to light by the 19th-century Oahspe Bible. Explaining how readers can use the Tables of Destiny to make their own predictions of the future, she presents her own forecasts of the risks and costs of technological progress, the destiny of America, the up-and-coming global religion, the truth behind climate change and the cause of earthquakes, and the true life expectancy of planet Earth as well as offering a preview of the Paradigm Shift and Golden Age ahead, a time of global unity and awakening of the soul of the world.

WHAT WILL IT BE LIKE IN HEAVEN FOLLOWING THE RAPTURE? Raptured, A Heavenly Novel is a joyful and vivid story of life in Heaven. Carissa Littleton finds herself suspended in midair. Suddenly she's transported to an entirely different place with a new body and a new way of life. Carissa and her friends, Carol and Sue, experience many facets of life in Heaven. They watch the Lord Jesus address the crowds, discover the mansions God has given them, and are asked to work in ways that prepare them for leadership throughout the Millennial Reign. The three women work together with their guardian angels and many more people of all eras and cultures. In the process of meeting a need, they find they are honored by the Lord Jesus despite their humble beginnings. Many people today eagerly await the return of Christ. The signs of the times are everywhere. There are two major schools of thought regarding Christ's return which have become increasingly controversial. These two diverse teachings are called the Pre-Tribulation and Post-Tribulation

Rapture. The word Rapture is not found in the English translation of the Bible. It is taken from the Latin translation for the words caught up found in 1 Thessalonians, 4 and 5. In these verses it tell us those who believe in Christ will be caught up to meet those who were once dead and have been resurrected in the clouds. Then we will be taken to be with the Lord forever. The two teachings are both biblically based. The Pre-Tribulation stance teaches that Jesus will come before the time of great trouble (Tribulation). The Post-Tribulation stance teaches that Christ Jesus will not come until after the Tribulation. Raptured, A Heavenly Novel presents the Pre-Tribulation stance. The two sides have been debated for many centuries for good reasons. In my understanding, the Bible could be interpreted either direction. Jesus spoke of the things happening in our world today (Matthew 24 and more). According to Him, the current difficulties we're experiencing are not the Tribulation. Weather and other difficult events are precursors to much more difficult prophetic events (Revelation and more). God is real. Heaven is real. The Bible is happening before our eyes. The Rapture is the next event prophesied in the course of fulfilled Scripture. It's an extremely exciting time in history. I've endeavored to keep this novel lighthearted, encouraging, kind, and a wondrous idea of the possibilities of our promised eternal lives. It is with great joy I look forward to Rapture. The possibilities of eternity are endless! Should the Rapture happen soon, as seems to be indicated by fulfillment of Scripture, those of us who have believed will have an incredible future ahead of us. What an exciting thought!

As editor of the quarterly Salmagundi for the past fifty years, Robert Boyers has been on the cutting edge of developments in politics, culture, and the arts. Reflecting on his collaborations and quarrels with some of the twentieth century's most transformative writers, artists, and thinkers, Boyers writes a wholly original intellectual memoir that rigorously confronts selected aspects of contemporary society. Organizing his chapters around specific ideas, Boyers anatomizes the process by which they fall in and out of fashion and often confuse those who most ardently embrace them. In provocative encounters with authority, fidelity, "the other," pleasure, and a wide range of other topics, Boyers tells colorful stories about his own life and, in the process, studies the fate of ideas in a society committed to change and ill equipped to assess the losses entailed in modernity. Among the writers who appear in these pages are Susan Sontag and V. S. Naipaul, Jamaica Kincaid and J. M. Coetzee, as well as figures drawn from all walks of life, including unfaithful husbands, psychoanalysts, terrorists, and besotted beauty lovers.

"I am Ana. I was the wife of Jesus." So begins the new novel from the number one New York Times bestselling author of The Secret Life of Bees and The Invention of Wings, an extraordinary story set in the first century about a woman who finds her voice and her destiny in a time of great despair and great hope. In her fourth work of fiction, Sue Monk Kidd brings her acclaimed narrative gifts to imagine the story of a young woman named Ana. Raised in a wealthy family in Sepphoris with ties to the ruler of Galilee, she is rebellious and ambitious, a relentless seeker with a brilliant, curious mind and a daring spirit. She yearns for a pursuit worthy of her life, but finds no outlet for her considerable talents. Defying the expectations placed on women, she engages in furtive scholarly pursuits and writes secret narratives about neglected and silenced women. When she meets the eighteen-year-old Jesus, each is drawn to and enriched by the other's spiritual and philosophical ideas. He becomes a floodgate for her intellect, but also the awakener of her heart. Their marriage unfolds with love and conflict, humor and pathos in Nazareth, where Ana makes a home with Jesus, his brothers, James and Simon, and their mother, Mary. Here, Ana's pent-up longings intensify amid the turbulent resistance to the Roman occupation of Israel, partially led by her charismatic adopted brother, Judas. She is sustained by her indomitable aunt Yaltha, who is searching for her long-lost daughter, as well as by other women, including her friend Tabitha, who is sold into slavery after she was raped, and Phasaelis, the shrewd wife of Herod Antipas. Ana's impetuous streak occasionally invites danger. When one such foray forces her to flee Nazareth for her safety shortly before Jesus's public ministry begins, she makes her way with Yaltha to Alexandria, where she eventually finds refuge and purpose in unexpected surroundings. Grounded in meticulous historical research and written with a reverential approach to Jesus's life that focuses on his humanity, The Book of Longings is an inspiring account of one woman's bold struggle to realize the passion and potential inside her, while living in a time, place, and culture devised to silence her.
