The saints are all the human beings who have reached heaven. They enjoy the beatific vision, seeing, directly and intuitively, God in his essence. They behold in God all that they ought to know about themselves and about their glory. Now, it is part of their glory to assist others, and help them serve God and reach heaven.

The Glory of God in His Saints The ultimate testimony of our Lord in this world is when His glory rests upon a fully surrendered saint. There is no greater miracle than the beauty of His presence in our faces. Our glory is not in our talents, our gifts, or our words; but in our praise to Him, hidden and revealed in our countenance.

Meet Saint John, a little fellow with a huge heart, who did ALL FOR THE GLORY OF GOD and learned to love Him enormously! Being different from others is never easy. Saint John the Dwarf, of all people, could tell you that! Forever standing on chairs to reach things, unable to play games with other children because of his size, and being teased by the village bullies were all hard things to bear, and could have made John bitter and full of self-pity. But John discovered a secret - a great BIG secret - which changed his life and turned him into a giant of a saint. Join Little John on his adventures - from his home to a desert cave, to the altar and beyond - and let him teach you his secret of holiness too! With charming full-color illustrations and easy-to-read text, this first book in Susan Peek's new series for children (companion to her series for teens, "God's Forgotten Friends: Lives of Little-known Saints") is sure to capture the hearts of Catholic children everywhere.

Man hath now a heart too suitable to his estate a low state, and a low spirit. As the poor man that would not believe that any one man had such a sum as a hundred pounds, it was so far above what he possessed; so man will hardly now believe, that there is such a happiness as once he had, much less as Christ hath now procured.
